Your proposal should include

1. This completed form.
2. A covering letter, containing the following:
 - a description of the proposed book
 - your reasons and objectives for writing the proposed book
 - intended audience
 - evidence of need
 - your credentials as an author
 - status of the manuscript (is it complete, or still in development)
 - plans for length, illustration, and any special features
3. A table of contents, with detailed chapter summaries and a brief list of key references.
4. One or two sample chapters. These should give us an idea of style, voice, and intent.
